Principal

Welcoming the challenge of time and for all-round development of the society we have to think for the consideration of Human resources because it plays very important role in the society as well as to build up the Nation.

Education is the backbone of a society and it is also the knowledge and Knowledge is power. I am indeed happy in association myself with NRDS Group of institutions which catering General & Vocational education in the rural areas of Assam to benefit of the society. I personally will dedicate for upliftment of the NRDS Group of institutions for pioneering the objectives.

I extend my Best Wishes,

(Dr. Ramananda Sinha)
